Ohlara aka Kim Lansdowne-Walker

Platinum Alchemy Healing combines, natural therapies, energetic healing, intuitive energetic diagnosis of chakras dna and your subtle energy system, communication with your soul and spiritual based psychotherapy techniques.

I have developed this unique DNA healing and light integration healing system from my 27 years experience in the healing arts with direct guidance of the spiritual masters, and angelic light beings.

Healing treatments are supported by a range of energetic healing remedies and energy medicines "Platinum Alchemy Light Body Remedies" which assist you to quickly purify and gain deeper awareness returning you to Pure Balance and ultimately moving you forward in life with a new perception and deeper understanding of yourself. These formulas were given to me from the spiritual hierarchy and angelic light beings.

Platinum Alchemy is based in ancient healing traditions once used in the healing temples of Lemuria, Atlantis, Greece and Egypt, by priests and priestesses. In those ancient times it was used as a spiritual ascension tool and even as a spiritual descending tool for those coming in a lower vibration on the earth. The temples were set up as healing places to help incoming and outgoing souls increase their vibration.

PLATINUM ALCHEMY HEALING MENU

•Your Platinum Alchemy Personalized Healing Program

Platinum Alchemy Transformational Healing (P.A.T.H)

This is where it all starts; in this specialized consultation I connect directly to your soul energy for guidance and direction to develop the best healing program for your return to pure balance.

Your DNA blueprint and chakras are read and assessed through to 5000 strands of DNA. This determines the current core psycho spiritual energy blockages residing in your chakras and the DNA strands. This provides an indication of how your personal energy is flowing through your chakra system and where there may be blocked energies preventing you from moving forward in your soul life direction.

Communication with your soul, Earth Mother Mutuhu and the Platinum Angels, help you understand your lineage information surrounding the original distortion or separation creating the energy blockages. This is channeled in written form to give you deeper understanding of your ancestral lineage and how and why your life-force is blocked.

A detailed step by step healing program is designed for you in direct connection with your soul requirement supporting your journey to Joy, enlightenment, oneness and ascension.

On completion of your report you will receive a fully detailed written report with your soul reading.

This form of healing is available at a distance anywhere on the planet; please see my distant healing program information which you can download from the website.

processes are transformed one at a time allowing the light networks to flow through all 12 levels. This process works so DNA can be activated without physical symptoms manifesting which may develop into illness or disease. These treatments allow the light to flow into the energy field once more, assisting personal healing and awakening.

• Soul Reading (60 min to 90 min)

This is a channeled reading where Kim directly connects to your Soul and brings forth information, which your Soul requires you to understand at this time in your life to help you move forward along your personally evolving path. Includes CD recording. Telephone and Distance Readings are also available see Distant Healing and/or Readings

• Entity Clearing

Illness over a long term can be associated with spirit attachments which the individual has taken on or which have been sitting silently in the strands of DNA through various lifetimes. As a person awakens into light entities can present themselves at the various strands of DNA. A program will reveal if and when there is an entity ready to be cleared.

A simple test can reveal if a person has energy attachments and if they are affecting their mind, emotions or physical health. Kim performs this specialized service if necessary only at a distance. It usually takes about 1 hour for the 1st cleansing, then follow up checks, cleanings or healing are usually required to keep the person free of spirit attachment until their personal energy is strengthened.

This work is only carried out at a distance.

TESTIMONIALS

from Platinum Alchemy Transformational Healing clients

I am very very thankful for all the guidance, love and advice from you. I have seen a tremendous difference in all aspects of my life. I feel more calm more aware and my consciousness shift in to other levels. My dreams have changed and I can receive guidance. I feel fear less and less, joy trust and faith is taking its place. Especially now that the healing is focusing on the lower levels of my awareness preparing me to let go of the old way of thinking.

I am able to see this process now more clearly and see how it blocks me from moving forward. I have followed the extra healing instructions you have given me last time. I am so thankful! I couldn't believe how much pain and hurts I was keeping deep inside my heart. It was a painful process but the products; the help from Ecclesia's, the meditation help to release a lot.

I feel I am in a very important turning point of my life. I am learning trust and faith. I believe that everything is as it should be and with patience and discipline I will be able to move forward.

I am so blessed to have had 11 months of treatment from Ohlara. She has done for me in this time more than I have achieved in 12 yrs of counseling. (I have been diagnosed with bipolar and it is recommended that cognitive therapy is the best way to support this diagnosis). Ok so twelve years verses' 11 months I know who I would have liked to worked with first!

The treatment has removed blockages which have enabled me to face my truths with the gentle back up of the products she uses to support the treatments.

I am now attracting eligible men to me and producing Art work of high quality which has not been my experience in the past.

Ohlara is before her time. I believe she is contributing a huge amount in the evolution of our planet, through her amazing dedication to support the individual in a holistic caring way through her products and healing practices.

Mandi T. Central Coast 2009

I think that the "Platinum Alchemy Personalized Healing" given though Ohlara is a most serious and scientific method of helping people to get out of the maze of their deeply held beliefs - limiting beliefs - and attachments and come face to face with their selves.

That's what happened to me in a synchronistically multi-facet way since when I started with Ohlara, Mutuhu, the Platinum Ray and the Platinum Angels this beautiful and demanding journey towards the Source.

Thank you Ohlara

Costas K. Cyprus 2009 Distant Healing

My name is Alison Smith I have been seeing Kim for 3 1/2 years for healing and as a student of her Inner Wisdom academy. When I first started to see Kim I was severely depressed, suicidal and had no will to live in the physical world.

Kim brought me alive giving me the tools and wisdom my soul had longed for. Through her remedies I was lifted out of the depression and into the light and for the first time in a long time I felt the will to live. I now had something to live for.

I had been taught to Love and Honor myself and that I was a being of love and light and that I was here to shine onto the world these gifts. Through Kim's teachings I was shown so many wonderful and ancient teachings which felt so real and powerful to me, Kim taught it all, not just one aspect of wisdom but many, all brought into one system. Some lessons were so powerful and opened up a lot of awareness in my consciousness which allowed me to integrate what I needed for my evolution and to just let all the rest of the knowledge sit within to be brought out when it is needed. I knew it was Truth as it just felt so perfect. I knew I was in a special place I just felt so excited when going to class. Learning such beautiful parts of this Life and all things Metaphysical just helped me through my darkest days knowing it's all in Love and that I am never alone even when it seems so.

She taught me things only an Angel would know bringing me back to Love in all moments. Now I live in Love everyday of my Life. I am filled with this Love in all moments of my life and can now let this love flow onto all other Human Beings. Kim reminded me who I am. For this Kim I am eternally grateful

Love & light xx, Yours Truly, Alison Smith 2007

My whole-hearted thanks and appreciation goes to Kim Lansdowne-Walker for sharing her amazing healing powers with me, she is truly an incredible woman. I believe that my treatments with Kim have saved me from certain physical illness and have helped me to get my life back on track by helping me to deal with the events that led me to the lowest point of my life. I have always been a strong and independent woman, partly due to the fact that I lost my mother at a very young age and my father was unable to cope with the responsibility of looking after three children alone, which led me to leave home at the age of seventeen. I lived a free and happy life until the age of 30 when I found myself involved in a very bad relationship and a very demanding and stressful career.

After enduring this for a number of years, my turning point came when I spent my entire four day Easter break locked in the house, unable to face anything even answering the telephone. I felt like I was losing my mind and wanted to admit myself to hospital with stress and exhaustion. I remembered I had picked up a brochure of Kim's about a year prior whilst on holiday, and decided to give her a call. It was the best thing I could have done! After my first assessment we discovered that almost all of the energy points in my body had shut-down or were blocked and I felt like a walking "zombie". I have been having regular treatments and look forward to each visit, the atmosphere is very peaceful and has allowed me to work through my energy blockages in a very nurturing and non-judgemental environment. Kim's ability to read and channel energy from the angels still amazes me, I do not question this ability she has as I have experienced the wonderful and uplifting effects of it and recommend this treatment to anyone who feels they may need it. Thank you Kim, you are a very special person.

I highly recommend Pure Balance Platinum Alchemy Healing Paths to anyone who is seeking a greater sense of well-being in all aspects of their life through receiving nurturing and subtle treatments that is specifically designed to assist you in bringing out the best in who you are.

This truly unique day spa unlike any other, will enable you to see what aspects in your life are affecting you from feeling balanced within yourself and will heighten your awareness in order to overcome the obstacles you face in your day to day life. You will be able to open up to new ways of seeing through issues that may have once been blocking your ability to live life to its fullest potential. Not only will you feel you are able to get more out of life, those who are close to you will also benefit.

I have struggled to overcome various challenges both mentally and physically in my life which have hindered my ability to feel at ease within myself and have resorted to numerous medical and natural therapists, as well as prescribed drugs and herbal treatments and have applied a number of self-help techniques. Yet there has been no other place like Pure Balance that has enabled me to fully see through what had previously been stopping me from finding true happiness within myself. There are many products and services available today that promises us a better state of health although I have found through personal experience that I am only able to go so far until the issue manifests again. Other health products and services have proven to simply provide a band-aid effect where it is only masking the issue and will only provide a sense of wellbeing for a short period of time. I have found this only leads to a cycle of dependence on a particular product or service yet never directly pinpoints the issue to completely resolve what needs to be addressed.

Pure Balance enables you to see what is directly affecting you from getting on with your life, providing you the opportunity to make a positive change within yourself, enabling you the freedom to move through life with confidence and certainty.
